The Demonstration on Wednesday.

It is hoped that every Republican of Milwaukee City and County and as many of our brethren from other parts of the State as can make it convenient, will unite in the demonstration of Wednesday next, in honor of C. A. BROWN.

Three Persons Killed—Narrow Escape of the Passengers.

A fearful collision occurred on the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway, about half past nine o'clock Friday morning, between the regular passenger train coming west, and a heavy freight train going east. We got the particulars from Mr. W. H. RANSBY, of Port Washington, who was on the passenger train, and arrived here early Saturday morning.

It appears that the passenger train had just left Birmingham, the next station east of Pontiac, where it had passed the regular freight train, and was going along at a speed of 25 or 30 miles an hour, when it suddenly came in collision with an extra freight train bound east, and moving rapidly. The crash was tremendous; both locomotives were completely used up and eleven cars nearly destroyed. The Express agent, named Nichols, living in Detroit, the Mail agent, and a Fireman, whose names we could not learn, were instantly killed, and a number of others were badly wounded. The passengers all escaped unhurt. The cause of the collision was mainly due to the fact that a heavy locomotive and two cars full of express packages, luggage and mail, in the passenger train, and two cars full of Milwaukee packed beef in the freight train, interfered an obstacle to the interlocking of the cars, which, usually follows such a collision. We could obtain no satisfactory account of the cause of the catastrophe. But it seems impossible that such a collision could occur on a bright October morning, between the regular passenger train and a freight train, without gross carelessness, or mismanagement somewhere. It is due to the public that the matter should be thoroughly investigated and the parties in fault held to a rigid accountability. This mere loss of property is nothing; but the loss of three lives and the imminent peril of a large number of passengers call for a prompt and searching inquiry.

DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION AT WATER-TOWN.

On Friday evening last, says the Watertown Democrat, Hon. S. PARK COOK, of Milwaukee, made a speech from the balcony of the Planter's Hotel, to a small crowd of men and boys, in which there was about an equal sprinkling of Republicans and Democrats. After which the boys formed a torch-light procession, tore down several signs, hooded and yelled, and went home.

REBELLION AND WIT.—It is said that some threatening Postmasters in the extreme South have sent letters to the Department, stating that they must not be considered as willing to hold their offices after the 4th of March next. As there are a great number of Postmasters at this time, we may expect to hear of many such acts of patriotism.

A SPOILING NEWSPAPER IN TROUBLE.

A suit has been commenced in the New York courts, by THOMAS B. THORNTON, against EDWARD C. JONES and RICHARD HAYS, to dissolve the partnership heretofore existing between them in the publication of the oldest sporting paper in the United States—the Spirit of the Times. The plaintiff asked that a receiver might be appointed to conduct the paper and finally sell it for the benefit of the parties and their creditors. The court reserved its decision.

The Great Demonstration.

On Wednesday next, continues to be the chief topic of conversation. The probabilities are that Milwaukee will see a gala day that will make her heart glad.

Favorable arrangements are being made with all the railroads to convey the great numbers of country people to town on reasonable conditions.

In Common Council.

A special meeting of the Board of Councilors was held on Friday night, at which Mr. Norris tendered his resignation as a member of the Board. The resignation being accepted.

Councilor Lockwood called the Lockwood Investigating Resolutions from the table and moved their adoption.

Councilor Lockwood moved to amend by striking out so much of said resolutions as related to Councilor Norris, and to further amend by expelling from the committee such members of the Council as had served previous to the present year.

The resolution was adopted as amended. Councilor Lockwood voting against it.

Mr. Mallon afterwards moved to have the report of the first investigating committee published officially.

Councilor Lockwood amended so as to include the last report, which amendment was lost, and the resolution adopted.

Councilor Lockwood called attention to the fact that Councilor Norris had been expelled from the Council, and that the committee had been organized to investigate the same.

The Philadelphia Excursionists.

The Philadelphia excursionists, forty in number, accompanied by a large delegation of the Milwaukee Republican party, arrived in this city this morning at 8 o'clock, via the Pittsburgh, St. Wayne and Chicago railroad, under charge of Mr. J. H. Houghton.

No concerted action has yet been taken by the excursionists, many of them retiring from the fatigues induced by so long a trip, after leaving interesting public life in Philadelphia.

The following gentlemen are participants in the excursion, additional to those published in the Journal yesterday: John Houghton, Sprague, Harbinger, J. J. Houghton, and St. Morris, of Pittsburgh; Mayor Smith and George A. Benedict, Esq., of the Cleveland Herald.

The Philadelphia press is represented as follows: Messrs. Mottishaw & Crump, North American; Thompson, Daily Press; Malloy, Daily Register; and Clark, Morning Journal.

The party was got up at the suggestion of Mr. H. Houghton, of the Pennsylvania Convention, and the accompanying party.

They left Philadelphia on Monday, October 16th.

During their trip they propose visiting Milwaukee, Quincy, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Louisville, Lexington, Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus. From the latter place they will return by the St. Paul and Northern Pacific Railroad, arriving in Philadelphia Saturday evening, Nov. 3.

An elegant iron car, built by Morrill, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Co., was chartered to the excursionists by G. W. Cass, Esq., Superintendent of the P. & R. W. Cass is for the time being, the general manager of the car, and has been a constant theme of praise and admiration in the mouths of the excursionists all along the route.

On the 19th of the party, the party, the "solid men" of Philadelphia, have happily in this trip combined pleasure and business, and while they hope the measure of the first will be speedily and mutually over, they trust that they will, during their brief visit, acquire an intimate knowledge of the nature and scope of the Philadelphia movement, which shall conduce to the establishment of a mutual and profitable trade between the two cities.—Chicago Daily
